

Dr. Guadalupe Rivera, Jr, Assistant Director, completed the Doctorate of Musical Arts Degree in Choral and Orchestral conducting at the University of Arizona under the supervision of Dr. Bruce Chamberlain and Dr. Thomas Cockrell. He is a product of the most successful and largest choral conducting program in the United States. While there he conducted the Kantorei Chamber Choir and Recital Choir, along with being the Assistant Conductor of the University Community Chorus. Mr. Rivera, a native of Corpus Christi and former member of the Cathedral Pontifical Chorale, received his Bachelor of Music Education from Texas Christian University in 1996, where he studied with Ronald Shirey and the late Dr. Ruth Whitlock. He then completed his Masters of Music in Performance in Choral Conducting at the University of North Texas in 2005, where he studied with Dr. Jerry McCoy.
